

Betiana Romagnoli

Consultant

Certified Public Accountant

Certified Public Accountant, Litoral National University (2001)

Masters' in Tax Law, Torcuato Di Tella University (2010)

Spanish - English.

She graduated as certified public accountant from Litoral National University in 2001 and in 2010 she obtained her Master's in Tax Law from Torcuato Di Tella University.

From 2006 to 2011 she worked at the Tax Department of Marval, O'Farrell & Mairal. Previously, between 2004 and 2006 she worked at the International Tax Department and the Tax & Legal Department of KPMG Argentina.

She has advised prestigious companies, banks and trusts. She is an expert in tax planning, in structures for international and national transactions, including M&A, real estate, agri-business, and acquisition due diligences.

She is a member of the Professional Council of Economic Sciences of the City of Buenos Aires and of the Argentine Association of Fiscal Studies.